

Women Save $5 Using Gasoline

Says it is so easy to dry clean and nothing shrinks, fades or wrinkles.

Save $5 to $10 by doing your own dry cleaning. Here is a simple and inexpensive way to clean and brighten children's coats, suits, dresses, woolen garments, Swiss lawn, organdie and chiffon dresses, kid gloves and shoes, furs, neckties, ribbons, silks, satins, lace yokes, silk shirtwaists, draperies, rugs, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined with soap and water.

Get two ounces of solvent at any drug store and put it in two gallons of gasoline, where it readily dissolves. Then put in the goods to be cleaned. After a little rubbing out they come looking as clean and fresh as new. You will find nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles, requiring no pressing.

Any woman can do home dry cleaning in a few moments at little cost and save lots of money. It is as simple and easy as laundering, and you can't make a mistake. Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline, and your druggist will sell you two ounces of solvent which is simply gasoline soap. Then a wash bottle or large dishpan completes your home dry cleaning outfit.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lacy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 47 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after-effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

C. S. Francis was in Providence on a business trip Thursday.

Fred C. Morris of Providence was a visitor with friends here Thursday.

Patrick Murray, who has been employed at Putnam, is to engage in business here.

Indications now are that Ruth Dubuc, injured about two weeks ago, will recover.

Dined in Worcester. A party of local people motored to Worcester Wednesday evening for a dinner at the Bancroft.

Never has a building of such size been constructed with such rapidity in Killingly as marks the rise of the new addition to the mill at Williamsville.

Each evening in Danielson is marked by the burning of fallen leaves, a dangerous proceeding if not very carefully guarded.

Annual Rabbit Hunt. Arrangements have been completed for the annual rabbit hunt of Providence men who come to the Mason homestead at East Killingly each fall. The hunt is to be held early in November.

The government is to take action soon for the replacement of Alcott D. Sayles, who resigned, as postmaster at East Killingly. Mr. Sayles resigned on account of having been elected a selectman of Killingly.

First Selectman Louis E. Young is attending the superior court at Williamsville as a juror.

Rev. J. E. McCarthy of Moosup was a visitor in Danielson Thursday.

All Saints' day services are to be held at usual at Old Trinity church, Church street.

The cider mills in this vicinity are busy places these days, many apple growers having brought fruit to be turned into juice.

State police officials have been busy in Windham county towns for the past few days investigating cases that for the most part have taken them into the country districts. The cases have been of a minor nature.

In that particular department, it is expected that the new grand list to be compiled by the assessors will show a decided increase in the value of the automobiles owned in Killingly, the number having increased during the past year.

No Games Scheduled. All dressed and no place to go, will be the predicament of the fans who have followed the baseball games in this vicinity during the summer and early fall, for no games are scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

Detour Signs Erected. Following a rule in practice throughout the state, signs showing the detour through Danielson on account of street improvement work have been erected at Furnace and Cottage streets and at Water and Cottage, this being very much appreciated by tourists thrown off their route book directions by blocked streets.

It has been suggested that on account of the amount of tire fabric woven in this vicinity, the nearness of this locality to important markets and the superior transportation facilities may in the course of the development of the tire business result in the location of a tire manufacturing concern somewhere in Eastern Windham county.

Commissioners to Receive License Applications. There will be interest today in the session of the county commissioners COMPLETES TWO CENTURIES. Pomfret Congregational Church Notes Bicentennial Anniversary Thursday—Rev. Harry A. Beadle, Pastor.

Exercise in observance of the bicentennial of the Congregational church in Pomfret were held at the church Thursday. A number of citizens from many neighboring towns.

The morning service opened at 11 o'clock with the doxology and scripture reading. Prayers were offered by Professor Alexander R. Merriam of the Hartford Theological seminary. The anniversary poem was by Rev. John F. Trowbridge of West church, Vermont.

The church members was the subject of Larius Matheson of Norfolk, Nebraska, formerly of Pomfret, at the afternoon session. Other speakers at this session were Rev. Sherrod Soule, Hartford; The Church in the World; Greetings from the Grandmother Church, Rev. James DeNormandie, The Mother Church, Woodstock; Rev. Foadick B. Harrison, The Fellowship of the Church; Rev. F. D. Sargent, Putnam; Pomfret, Vermont; Mr. George E. Ladd, Pomfret; Pomfret, Conn.; Rev. W. B. Olmsted, headmaster, Pomfret school. Reading of letters from absent members. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper, administered by Rev. Albert E. Kinmouth of Brooklyn and Rev. Frank A. Fuller of Abington.

An outline of the history of the church follows:

Plans for Worship in 1713. After receiving confirmation of bounds in 1713, one of the first things Pomfret did was to settle religious worship in that town. In the year one hundred and fifty pounds for an orthodox minister with which to buy land and build himself a house and five pounds to call on the town should contain sixty families. Rev. Ebenezer Williams was secured for six months' religious services, being held in some convenient place, on February 16th, 1714, the town gave Mr. Williams a permanent call and he accepted. Work was soon begun on a meeting house. The frame was voted to build. The frame was raised April 27th and it was covered during the summer. It stood on the east side of the road about a quarter mile south of the present Congregational church. The house was opened for public use in the autumn and the first service held to build pews in specified parts.

Organized in 1715. A church was organized with 11 male members, Oct. 26th, 1715, and Mr. Williams was at the same time ordained pastor. The church had a meeting house was fenced in and a privilege granted to build a "Sabbath-day house," an institution of the period common in New England, though this is the only record of one in Windham county. It was a small house with a good fireplace and chimney, in which a few persons could sit and warm themselves, and eat their lunch, when they had come a long distance to church and wished to stay through both morning and afternoon services.

Foot Stoves Necessary. A good fire was kept up and from the coals thus accumulated the "foot stoves" were filled to carry into the meeting house to help them keep warm during the long service, there being no fire in the meeting house. Sometimes a single family owned a "Sabbath-day house" and sometimes several families joined in building one. In 1722 the inhabitants were given liberty to build stables for themselves near the north side of the meeting house. Mr. Williams died March 28th, 1753, closing a term of pastoral service of nearly 40 years.

Called Middletown Pastor. Rev. Nathaniel Russell of Middletown preached through the summer of 1728 and was called to the pastorate, but here to receive applications for licenses that are to go into effect next week. The number of applications is within the number that might be granted in Killingly under the law allowing one for each 500 of the population, so there will be no rejections on that score, but it is not announced that there will be over one. In demonstration, this against the granting of a license to Eli Dagenais, who has applied for one at his property on Railroad square.

NOTHING FROM WHITLOCK ABOUT CAPELL EXECUTION. German Semi-Official Statement Was Inaccurate.

London, Oct. 28, 4:59 p. m.—The American embassy here stated today that it had received no word from Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium with relation to the recently published report on the case of Miss Edith Cavell which a German semi-official statement yesterday charged was inaccurate. The German statement declared that Minister Whitlock had made known his intention to inform the embassy here of the alleged discrepancy between the facts and the Cavell report as it was given out.

Frame of New Meetinghouse. Rev. Aaron Putnam was next called and was in great measure disabled by a failure of voice and physical weakness and Oliver Dodge of Ipswich, a recent graduate of Harvard, was invited to act as his assistant for the purpose. It was completed during the following year. Galleries were built around the sides and a high pulpit and massive canopy was erected. The outside of the house was "cultured" in the most approved fashion of the day, the main body being orange and the trimmings white and chocolate.

Given an Assistant. While yet in the prime of life Mr. Putnam was in great measure disabled by a failure of voice and physical weakness and Oliver Dodge of Ipswich, a recent graduate of Harvard, was invited to act as his assistant for the purpose. It was completed during the following year. Galleries were built around the sides and a high pulpit and massive canopy was erected. The outside of the house was "cultured" in the most approved fashion of the day, the main body being orange and the trimmings white and chocolate.

Reformed Church Organized. This led them to indignantly repudiate all connection with the First church and straightway organize in a new form as the Reformed Christian Church and Congregation in Pomfret. Crowds flocked to the new meeting-house and minister were almost deserted. Conflict of sentiment ran high and there was a recriminatory war of words from platform and from press, not only in Pomfret, but throughout the state and county.

Congregation from Other Towns. The first public act of the new society was to invite Mr. Dodge to settle in the town and he was ordained, although many ministers of good standing shrank from introducing him into the ministry. The old Grosvenor house and minister from the old church and minister were almost deserted. Conflict of sentiment ran high and there was a recriminatory war of words from platform and from press, not only in Pomfret, but throughout the state and county.

Matter Settled by Court. But there was a snarl but powerful minority band against him and an attempt made by the Reform society to obtain possession of the church was frustrated by the county court, deciding that Mr. Putnam's adherents were the First Ecclesiastical society and had a right to the property.

Dismissed on Serious Charges. The breach continued until near the close of the century. The conduct of Mr. Dodge became an outrageous that at last his followers abandoned him, he was tried by his own church, found guilty of drunkenness and profanity and was excluded from the further privileges until by his reformation he should be restored to its charity. The members decided to return to the First church society and the Reform church withered and died.

Third Meetinghouse Built. Mr. Putnam was dismissed in 1802 owing to physical disabilities which prevented him from the further performance of his duties. Sixteen ministers have followed Mr. Putnam, but his activity in the ministry of the church was of a long and noble character any other. The third meetinghouse was built in 1832 and was enlarged and remodelled to its present proportions in 1857, 1872 and 1891. The church has given its spirit and life to the formation of churches in Brooklyn, Putnam, Abington and Pomfret, Vermont.
